A Brief history of Stella Maris Church (Mary, Star of the Sea), Strangford

Stella Maris Church was built in 1820 on a site given by Lord Henry Fitzgerald at his expense. Lord Henry also gave an additional £10 per year for expenses.

Before the Church was built, Mass was celebrated by Fr Denvir of Kilclief and later Fr Richard Teggart (PP, Kilclief) in a store on Newry Quay in Strangford belonging to Samuel Norris.

Lord Henry made an annual donation of £10 on consideration of being allowed two seats for the use of his visitors and servants.

In 1836 the Church was described as “a plain building with a slate roof and 5 small windows, 5 seats and a mud floor.”

Unfortunately in September 1930 the Church was damaged by a fire believed to have started by a thurible not being properly emptied.

The Church was replaced by the current building in 1932.
